Death of John Delaney, Granite Cutter Since '47-Willis Almy Charged With Violating Liquor Law-High School Concert Nets $165-Mrs. Louisa Roberts'

John Delaney died Thursday evening at his home in Oak street, after a short illness. Mr. Delaney was born in Ireland and came to this country when a young man, learning the trade of a stone cutter, and was among the first of the granite cutters to be employed in Westerly, at the very beginning of what subsecuently became the leading industry of the town.

This was on the top of Rhodes Hill, now Quarry hill, on the farm once owned by Dr. Joshua Babcock between the old Babcock house and the old Hill church. Mr. Smith bought the farm, and open-

Your house wears out if not painted. It costs more to repair it than it costs to paint it. It don't cost much to paint with the L. & M. Paint, because 4 gallons of L. & M. To Stop Lawiessness.

Last summer many persons were frightened by men chasing or appearing in front of them while on their way to and from Yantic on dark nights, causing many to remain at home evenings rather than go to Yantic, where they would board a car for Norwich. A number of holdups were reported, but the ones doing the mischlet were not detected. Of late, since a number of Polish families have moved into the village, the women who often remain to shows in Norwich are forced to leave the city while it is daylight, owing to the large number of Poles returning from Norwich under the effects of liquor, and usually quarreling from the time they leave the car at Yantic, Not long ago a crowd of girls came upon a gang of Poles engaged in a fight in which knives were freely displayed. The local officials are trying to find the participants of the fight, as they are determined to put an end to these fights. with maintaining a liquor nuisance, was commenced. Five Steals of Home Were All Artistically Pulled Off.

There are faster base runners than George Moriarty of the Detroit team, but mighty few fellows have a brain that moves more quickly. At least five times last year Moriarty pulled off the seemingly impossible feat of stealing home. In each instance he took a desperate chance and succeeded. He did not jump wildly at the deed, but used every ounce of gray matter to make his efforts possible. Strangely enough, in each game, the stealing of home proved the turning point in the conteat, making a Tiger victory certain.
